Code of Conduct

If you use our Village Hall, whether to deliver or support an activity or hire, we expect you to:

- treat other people (adults, children and young people) fairly and without prejudice or discrimination;
- understand that everyone is an individual with individual needs;
- respect differences in gender, sexual orientation, culture, race, ethnicity, disability and religious belief systems, and appreciate that everyone brings something valuable and different to this Village Hall and the activities & events that take place here;
- challenge discrimination and prejudice;
- encourage others (young people and adults) to speak out about attitudes or behaviour that makes them uncomfortable;
- promote relationships that are based on openness, honesty, trust and respect;
- be patient with others;
- provide a safe environment for all hall users.

Upholding this code of conduct

- You should always follow this code of conduct.
- If you become aware of any breaches of this code, you must report them to the Event Organiser.
- Should you feel that the Event Organiser has not taken an appropriate response please contact the Village Hall Chairman.
